50 Science References Supporting Hydroxychloroquine

Posted on May 17, 2020

The esteemed professor Paolo Zanotto, from the University of Sao Paulo, has released a list of 50 scientific references supporting the use of hydroxychloroquine for COVID-19.

Professor Paolo Zanotto studied virology at University of Oxford and is a Microbiology Professor at Universidade de São Paulo. He has published extensively, including in prestigious journals such as Nature, Journal of Virology, Virus Research and Genetics.
